

C# .Net Developer

It's an exciting period of expansion and new product development here at Caxton FX. As a result, we're currently on the hunt for a highly passionate and talented senior C# .Net developer to join our agile development team.

This role focuses on developing customer facing and back office systems to support our innovative trading platform.

Working in a close-knit team of experienced developers, you will be developing using an end-to-end Microsoft stack utilising the latest Microsoft bleeding edge cloud technology, and will directly contribute to the continued growth of the business.

Key Requirements

- At least 5 years' experience working in an agile team using scrum, developing web applications in C# for Microsoft ASP.NET MVC 3-5
- Experience developing towards a component based architecture
- A good understanding of the SOLID principles, and the benefits that this entails
- Experience developing with Code First Entity Framework
- Strong MS SQL Server and T-SQL Programming skills
- Strong Web UI / UX design skills – developing beautiful, easy to use customer facing systems
- A self-starter, able to work on own initiative and unsupervised; a keen problem-solver with a strong attention to detail
- Using GIT as a version control system
- A track record in developing API in a B2B environment using Visual Studio 2015, WCF and RESTful services
- Experience in developing JSON API to interface to iOS and Android devices
- Have worked on real time trading or FX systems (preferred, but not essential)
